

Thank you!

Talking About Mental Illness (TAMI) is a coalition of community agencies with a shared vision for education about mental health. Our purpose is to provide a forum for community stakeholders to coordinate and facilitate a unique educational opportunity for elementary and secondary students. We are committed to increasing the knowledge of mental health and decreasing the stigma associated with mental illness.

Donations help us to provide additional opportunities to students through TAMI initiatives. If you are interested in donating to the Durham TAMI program, please complete the information below and forward to the address noted below.

The members of the TAMI Coalition thank you most sincerely for your thoughtful consideration in choosing us as a recipient of your donation.

I would like to make a contribution and support of increasing knowledge of mental health and decreasing the stigma associated with mental illness.
